DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: should "age gets old" on page 1, line 10, read "aging"? It is unclear what is meant by "knots decorates the gap" in line 13. Should "both wear" on page 1, line 17 read "worn by both"? On page 1, line 20 should "and" read "but"? On page 1, line 22, should "inventor" read "inventor"? On page two, the last line should "th" read "the" and "panti s" read "panties"? On page 3, line 6 it is unclear what is meant by "...trimmed so that the lines of the body of the panties 10 do not fall off." On page 3, line 8 should "authentic ness" be one word?

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: should "which" in line one be deleted to read "a style of exotic panty, comprising:"? Appropriate correction is required.

3. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: should "locating" in line 4, read "located"? Appropriate correction is required.

4. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: It is unclear which "said opening" you are referring to, the upper, sides or the one located between the two side openings? Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hancock (US 6,209,143).

Hancock provides a panty garment having a body portion with an upper opening and two side openings (column 2, lines 23-58). An opening located between the two side openings wherein the opening is at the position of the genital (figures 1 and 5, identifiers 12 and 52). The circumference of the opening between the two side openings is well decorated and designed (figure 5, identifiers 52 and 53, column 5, lines 65-68 through column 6, lines 1-6).
